WHEREAS We deem it expedient to amend the Regulations made under the Regimental Debts Act, 1893;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that the following amendments be made in the Regulations annexed to the Warrant of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, dated the 3th August, 1893 :—

1. The following shall be substituted for paragraphs 1 to 5 :—

1. The committee of adjustment will consist of three officers. When practicable, the president should not be below the rank of captain, or, if the deceased was an officer, below that of major.

2. The committee will be appointed by the following officers :—

If the deceased was serving with his unit, by the commanding officer.

If the death occurred at sea, by the officer commanding the troops on board ship.

In all other cases, except as provided in paragraph 5 (b), by the officer in immediate command.

3. If the death occurs at sea, and a committee cannot be assembled on board ship, it will be assembled as soon as possible after the ship reaches its destination. If the port of disembarkation is a military station, the committee will be assembled by the officer in immediate command; if it is not a military station, by the general officer in whose command the port is situated.

4. If the officer authorized by paragraphs 2 or 3 to appoint a committee is, from any reason, unable to do so, he will apply to superior authority.

5. In cases where the deceased died while temporarily absent from the country in which he was stationed, then—

(a.) If the death occurred out of the United Kingdom a local committee of adjustment may also be appointed by the officer in command of the unit or station from which the deceased was temporarily absent to deal with his affairs in that country; and

(b.) If the death occurred in the United Kingdom one committee only shall be assembled, which shall be appointed by the officer who would have appointed the committee had the deceased not been so temporarily absent.

2. The following shall be substituted for paragraph 7 :—

7. The inventory and account will be prepared in duplicate on the forms supplied, and both the original and the duplicate will be certified by the committee of adjustment.

The original will be dealt with as hereafter directed in these regulations.

(a.) Where the deceased, not having been at the time of his death a member of the Indian Services, has died elsewhere than in India it will be kept with the regimental or other proper records.

(b.) Where the deceased was a member of the Indian Services at the time of his death or has died in India it will, if he was an officer, be sent to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Military Department, and if he was a non-commissioned officer or man of His Majesty's British Forces, it will be kept with the regimental records, unless a surplus is transferred to the Administrator General of the Presidency or Province under Section 28 (1) of the Act, in which case it will be sent to him. It will also accompany the remittance of a surplus under Section 26 (2) of the Act.

3. The following shall be substituted for lines 9 to 19, paragraph 18 :—

4. The following shall be substituted for paragraphs 14 and 15 :—

14. 15. The effects to be sold will be disposed of in the most advantageous manner either by private sale or by fair and open auction. Such auction will be held in the presence of a member of the committee of adjustment.

This receipt, together with the inventory and the account of debts and credits, will be transmitted by the committee to the Secretary of the War Office through the officer commanding at the station. Any committee of adjustment assembled under paragraph 8 to deal with the affairs of the deceased, if any, in India, will lodge any surplus in the hands of the Controller of Military Accounts for remittance to the War Office, forwarding a report of the action taken and the inventory and account of debts and credits to the Secretary of the War Office as above.

20. Where the deceased was a non-commissioned officer or man serving in His Majesty's British Forces, and was in the pay of the Indian Government, the committee of adjustment will lodge the surplus in the hands of the officer paying the corps, who will credit the amount in the next casualty return. Where the deceased was not in the pay of the Indian Government, the surplus will be credited in the pay list of the troop, squadron, battery or company to which the deceased belonged.

21. In cases where the deceased, not having been at the time of his death a non-commissioned officer or man of His Majesty's British Forces, has died in India, or was at the time of his death a member of the Indian Services, the committee of adjustment will remit the surplus to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Military Department.

6. The following shall be substituted for lines 6 to 8 of paragraph 28 :—

"the surplus will be disposed of as directed in paragraph 19. Notes on Standards and Tests.

No recruit will be enlisted who fails to fulfil the conditions of chest measurement, or chest expansion, laid down in the following tests:—

- (a.) The chest measurement of recruits will be taken by medical officers according to the directions given in the Medical Regulations; but it is to be noted that the importance of accuracy is emphasized by the fact that a certain amount of expansion is required according to height and age; the minimum chest being taken when the lungs are emptied of all air.
- (b.) There is no standard of weight, but the weights laid down in the various "tests" will be regarded as a guide, indicating the point at, and below which, a specially careful physical examination must be made; and examining medical officers should pass as "fit" only such recruits whose failure to reach those weights is solely the result of insufficient nutriment, and not caused by constitutional taint.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 180 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
